

National workshop for Cameroon on data availability for measuring climate change with a gender dimension for better adaptation and mitigation policies

11 – 12 August 2026

From 9:00 to 16:30

Place: Star Land Hotel, Yaounde, Cameroon

Agenda

(version 10 August 2026)

Tuesday, 11 August 2026
Session 1: Opening and Introduction
Moderator: Dany Ghafari, UNEP
08:30 – 09:00	Morning coffee and Registration
09:00 – 09:30	Welcome Remarks: - Mr. Joseph Tedou, the Director General of the National Institute of Statistics (NIS / INS) of Cameroon - Dr. Issa Sanogo, the United Nations Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator in Cameroon Opening Address, tbc: - Minister of Environment, Protection of Nature and Sustainable Development (MINEPDED), followed by the official opening of the workshop Group picture
09:30 – 10:00	- Introduction of participants (15 mins) - Introduction to the workshop purpose and presentation of the agenda (5 mins) Presentation: Introduction of the project “Measuring Climate Change with a gender dimension for better adaptation and mitigation policies” under the 17th tranche of the United Nations Development Account (DA17 project) (10 mins)
Session 2: Introducing statistical initiatives on gender-sensitive climate change data and statistics at the global level to support policymaking
Moderator: Monica Madrid, UNSD
10:00 – 12:30	Introduction of the Session, by Moderator (5 mins) Presentation: Policy demands for climate change statistics and Paris Agreement reporting, by Dany Ghafari, UNEP (15 mins) Q&A (10 mins) Panel discussion: How are global initiatives and agreements, relevant to environment and climate change, integrated at the national level in Cameroon and is a gender perspective included? moderated by Monica Madrid, UNSD (45 mins; three questions, 3 minutes per answer per person) Q&A from the audience (15 mins) • Presentation: Introduction of the Global Set of Climate Change Statistics and Indicators, including relevant work on gender, by Dany Ghafari, UNEP (20 mins) Q&A (10 mins) • Presentation: From Recognition to Integration: Mainstreaming a Gender Perspective in Climate Change Statistics, by Monica Madrid, UNSD (20 mins) Q&A (10 mins)

12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
Session 3: Policy request and development of climate change and gender data and statistics in Cameroon Moderator: Pierre SOHKADJIE SONGO, INS Cameroon
13:30 – 16:00	Introduction of the Session (National presentations from different stakeholders on their current work on climate change and gender, any efforts, plans, reporting, etc.), by Moderator (5 mins) • Up to 15-minute presentation with Q&A after each from: • MINEPDED • National Observatory on Climate Change • MINT / National Meteorology Directorate • MINAS • MINAT/DPC • MINPROFF • NIS
16:00 – 16:15	Coffee at the end of the day
Wednesday, 12 August 2026
Session 4: Availability and gaps in gender-sensitive climate change data and statistics Moderator: Marie Antoinette Fomo, UNEP consultant in Cameroon
08:30 – 09:00	Morning coffee
09:00 – 12:30	Introduction of the Session, by Moderator (5 mins) • Presentation: Preliminary results of a national effort to identify and analyse existing national data sources that can be used to develop a pilot list of core gender-sensitive climate change indicators in Cameroon, by Marie Antoinette Fomo, UNEP consultant in Cameroon Q&A Open discussion, moderated by Marie Antoinette Fomo, UNEP consultant in Cameroon Question 1: According to the mandate and area of work of your organization, how is the gender dimension taken into account in activities related to climate change, or conversely, how are climate issues integrated into actions related to gender and social protection? Question 2: In the context of your activities, what are the main challenges your organization faces in producing, processing, or using gender-sensitive climate change statistics? Question 3: What types of support – technical, methodological, or institutional – would be necessary to strengthen the regular production of statistics that better consider the link between climate change and gender in your activities? Summary of the discussion, by Moderator

12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
Session 5: Next steps, Recommendations and Closing Moderator: by Monica Madrid, UNSD
13:30 – 15:30	Introduction of the Session, by Moderator (3 mins) • Presentation from UN about the next steps of the DA17 project, by Dany Ghafari, UNEP (7 mins) • Presentation on how Cameroon benefits from the project and what is needed at the nation level to enhance the work on climate change and gender statistics, by Pierre SOHKADJIE SONGO, Acting Head of the Cartography, Environment and Climate Change Statistics Division, NIS Cameroon, national focal point of the DA17 project (10 mins) Group exercise: Discussions in small groups of needs and recommendations for developing gender-sensitive climate change data in Cameroon, moderated by Dany Ghafari, UNEP, notes by Monica Madrid, UNSD (30 mins) • Presentations of results by each group (5 mins per group; 30 mins in total) • Summary of the discussion, by Monica Madrid, UNSD (10 mins) Post-workshop survey, by Dany Ghafari, UNEP (10 mis) Conclusion and closing remarks by UN, national stakeholders and INS
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee at the end of the day